

B-r-r! Bring Your Cold Wave, Mr. Weatherman Kaufmann Is Ready with Warm Things

Only a few of your many needs are listed below; the prices but hint of the many savings always found in our basement at this season. Lots are limited.

Women's $3 Coat Sweaters at $2.50

All-wool Coat Sweaters, in manish weave, fastening high or low at neck, with belt and patch pocket; white, gray, tan and black;
instead of $3, to-day at $2.50.

Our 75c Knit
Union Suits at 50c

A well-known make of Knitted Union Suits that we offer as a leader; fleece lined; bleached; high neck; long sleeves and ankle length; instead of 75c, to-day 50c.

The $1 Knit Underskirts at 38c

Close-fitting winter Underskirts, in solid colors, with combination colored borders; crocheted waistline and tape run; instead of $1, to-day at 60c.

50c Knit
Vest-Pants
29c each

Exceptionally nice Underwear; fleece lined garments that are very comfortable these cold days; heavy weight; 50c, grade, offered to-day at 25c, each.

Kaufmann & Co.
Corner Fourth and Broad Streets.

Kaufmann & Co.
Corner Fourth and Broad Streets.

Social and Personal

Miss Helen Adams returned to Richmond on Sunday evening, having been abroad since early in the summer. Mrs.
William H. White and Miss Emma Gray White, with whom Miss Adams traveled through Europe, arrived in Richmond last week. Miss Adams stopping in New York for a short stay with relatives.

At the Woman's Club.

The parlors of the Woman's Club were filled with an interesting gathering to greet Mrs. Charles G. Boshier yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Boshier is a member of the club, and she is the author of the most interesting story
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story, "The Man Who Did Not Know," is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

Mrs. Boshier read first a clever little
story, "The Man Who Did Not Know,"
which she read to the club yesterday.
The story is a story of a man who was
lost in the woods, and who was found
by a hunter. The story is a story of
adventure and of the power of the
human mind.

school year of the Federation of Mothers' Clubs and Parent-Teacher Association. The meeting was held at the clubhouse, 805 East Marshall Street.
Mrs. W. A. Burrows, president, will make a report of the International Congress on School Hygiene, which was held at Buffalo last August. Mrs. Burrows represented the city and the federation at congress.

The Ladies' society of the church will make addresses, and there will be music and refreshments. After the regular program is concluded, all members of individual clubs and others interested are invited to attend. The executive board will hold a business meeting at 8:30 o'clock.

Big Church Wedding.
The wedding of Miss Rose Leslie Valentine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Stuart Valentine, and Thomas West Elliott, son of John S. Elliott, also of Richmond, was celebrated at the church yesterday.

The ceremony, which will be a fashionable church event, will be celebrated at 4 o'clock in All Saints' Church, the Rev.
John Yates Downman, rector of the church, officiating, and a reception at the home of the bride's parents will be given immediately afterward.

Following a wedding journey, Mr.
Elliott and his bride will be at home after January 1 at 421 West Grace Street.

Miss Mary Scott, who is to be one of the bridesmaids, was wedded at a luncheon in honor of the bride and her attendants yesterday.

The luncheon took place at the Country Club of Virginia, and the table, which was set for fifty guests, was decorated in a big basket of pink roses.

Randolph Carlowitz, who is the only bridegroom at the Country Club last evening, following the final reception at the church.

Miss Bragg's Stories.
Stories of fun, stories of fables and stories of all the other kinds will be told at the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium Monday and Tuesday, November 17 and 18, at 4:30 o'clock.

Miss Bragg, the story-teller, will also instruct the grown people in the art of story-telling and give valuable information as to where to find stories and how to select and tell them. This talk will be given at the same place Monday evening at 8:15.

Visitors Entertained.
Mrs. Richard Carlton, of Richmond, and Mrs. William L. Shumate were the honor guests at a luncheon given by Mrs. C. H. West at her home in Newport News Friday. Artistic decorations were used in the dining-room, a color scheme of yellow being carried out. Covers were laid for twelve, and Mrs. West's guests included Mrs.
Shumate, Mrs. Carlton, Mrs. Saxon W.
Holt, Mrs. W. T. Chapin, Mrs. W. S.
Copeland, Mrs. Edith Morecock, Mrs.
George Nelson Wise, Mrs. Elliott Braxton, Mrs. J. C. H. West, Mrs. W. H.
Kent and Mrs. S. R. Buxton.

An original social event of the past week was a musical tea given Friday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock by Mrs.
Robert L. Cole, of Chikley, in honor of Miss Brauer, of Richmond.
Piano, English lily, hemlock and rho-dodendron made an artistic background in the hall and music room, and chrysanthemums were used as decorations in the dining-room.

V. W. C. A. Gymnasium Announcements.
The children's class at the V. W. C. A.
Gymnasium will be open on November 12 afternoon at 4 o'clock to any children between the ages of six and ten years who may visit the gymnasium.
All South Fourth Street residents and children, parents or friends interested in physical training for the little folks will be welcome.

On Thursday afternoon from 5:30 to 6:30 o'clock there will be a demonstration of regular class work, to which the physicians of the city and women who may be interested in becoming members of the morning class are cordially invited.

Visiting Here.
Mrs. Robert Warnock, Jr., of Arlington, N. J., is visiting her brother, R. H.
Warnock, Jr., at 1219 Park Avenue.
Mrs. Warnock is in Virginia to be present at the marriage of her brother, C.
Hutcheon Warnock, which will take place in Norfolk on November 12.

Meeting This Afternoon.
The Williams Memorial Circle of King's Daughters will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. C. H. W.
Word at her residence, 484 North Lombardy Street.

Gifts to John Marshall House.
Miss Virginia Miller, directress of the Washington Branch of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, has loaned to the association three interesting letters written in December, 1793, by Chief Justice Marshall to her great-grandfather, Judge Charles Lee, Attorney-General of the United States. The letters are handwritten, framed between glass, so that they can be easily read, and are a valuable addition to the collection of historical articles at the John Marshall House.

Donation Day.
Today has been set apart by the board of managers of the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital for annual donation day. A committee of members will be at the hospital all day.

In and Out of Town.
Miss Carrie Davis, of the University of Virginia, is spending some time at 114 East Franklin Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner S. Plimley have returned to Charleston, W. Va., after attending the Jones-Steel wedding here.

Mrs. W. A. Smoot, of Alexandria, a delegate to the Daughters of American Revolution Conference, will be the guest of Mrs. William Leeds Wright, of 1902 Hanover Avenue.

Mrs. M. B. Vest, of Newport News, has returned to her home, after a short visit to this city.

Mrs. W. J. Armstrong, in Houston,
Texas, and will later visit her son,
Dr. H. M. Taylor, in Jacksonville, Fla.

George H. Sargeant has returned to Norfolk, after spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George Ben Johnston here.

Miss May Breeden is visiting her brother, Edward Breeden, at his home
near Gordonsville.

James R. Ellerson, Jr., who spent the week-end with his parents in Washington, has returned to the city.

The Equal Suffrage League will give a suffrage tea and bazaar at league headquarters from 4 to 7 o'clock today.

has returned to her home, after a short
visit to this city.

Mrs. E. T. Brady, who came to Richmond to attend the Miller-Richardson wedding, has returned to Roanoke.

Mrs. Hal Fitzhugh Lewis, of Bristol, Tenn., is spending this week in Richmond.

Mrs. William Hugh Nelson, of 521 West Grace Street, has as her guests for the Daughters of the American Revolution Conference, Mrs. E. W.
Ritch, of Petersburg, regent of the Frances Bland Randolph Chapter, and Mrs. William Drewry.

Miss Ruth Ford, of this city, is visiting Miss Marie Ward, at her home in Newport News.

Miss Martha Valentine, who is a student at Sweet Briar College this season, is spending several days in town.

Mrs. James B. Taylor, formerly of this city, is the guest of her daughter.

Mrs. W. J. Armstrong, in Houston,
Texas, and will later visit her son,
Dr. H. M. Taylor, in Jacksonville, Fla.

George H. Sargeant has returned to Norfolk, after spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George Ben Johnston here.

Miss May Breeden is visiting her brother, Edward Breeden, at his home
near Gordonsville.

James R. Ellerson, Jr., who spent the week-end with his parents in Washington, has returned to the city.

The Equal Suffrage League will give
a suffrage tea and bazaar at league
headquarters from 4 to 7 o'clock to-
day.

Deer and Moose Plentiful.
Duluth, Minn., November 10.—This was the first day of the game season in Minnesota and Wisconsin, and hunters by the thousand were out. More than 400 left Duluth during the night. Reports indicate that deer and moose are plentiful.

DON'T TAKE ANY CHANCES WITH OTHERS.
But Send Your Clothes to Footers Dye Works
WHERE CLEANING AND DYING HAVE ATTAINED THEIR HIGHEST PERFECTION.
Arcade Building, 207-D Foushee Street. Monroe 405.

Unquestionably the Largest and Most Representative Assortment of Wedding Gift Articles Wrought of Platinum, Gold and Sterling Silver from the most reasonable in price to the elaborate and expensive kind. Inspect the exhibit and make your own conclusion.
C. LUMSDEN & SON, Inc.
"JEWELERS TO THE SOUTHERN PEOPLE." Established 1835.
731 EAST MAIN STREET, RICHMOND, VA.

Engraving of Known Quality
Our name is sufficient when quality is concerned in both the business and social world.
With our modern facilities and crafty artists we are serving the particular people of Richmond.
We are engravers to those who know. Why not you?
Estimates and samples on request.

Virginia Stationery Co., Inc.
"Engravers to Those Who Know." 915 East Main Street, RICHMOND, VA.

Elegant Wedding Gifts
The Nowlan Company, 921 East Main St.
Are headquarters for Elegant Gifts of Fine Gold and Sterling Silver, and their selection for this season comprises many beautiful articles, such as will not be found in other stocks, at prices more reasonable than ever before.

Geo. W. Anderson & Sons 215 East Broad Street.
Lace Curtains and Portieres
INCLUDING EVERY VARIETY.
ALL THE LATEST NOVELTIES.
Special Priced Rugs, Axminster Rugs
Size 9x12 Feet.
$19.85 $23.50 $25 $27.50

WILSON PROBING PINDELL AFFAIR

He Wants to Know Just What Sort of Offer Was Made to Him.

SITUATION IS VERY DELICATE

Implied Insult to Russia May Make Negotiation of Treaty Impossible.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Washington, November 10.—These are the latest developments in the interesting situation that has arisen out of the James Hamilton Lewis letter to Henry M. Pindell, of Peoria, Ill., offering him the post of ambassador to Russia for a year, and informing him the State Department would see to it no important business would be negotiated with Russia in that time; 1. President Wilson is personally investigating the statements made in the letter.

2. The President thus puts the responsibility for such an offer in the letter up to Secretary Bryan.

3. The nomination of Pindell for ambassador was not sent to the Senate today, as usual.

4. The opinion at the Capitol is that the implied insult to Russia, contained in the offer, will cause Russia bluntly to refuse to negotiate a treaty with this country, leaving American Jews equal rights with other citizens. An unhappy of indignation against Russia's attitude forced commissioners two years ago to abandon the treaty. The task of negotiation of a treaty, which was difficult before the Pindell offer was made, is believed to be impossible now.

The President said to-day that he had not yet looked fully into the unique offer made to Mr. Pindell, with the knowledge and approval of Secretary Bryan, as the letter indicates. He left a very strong impression that he is investigating it now, or that he intends to do so at once, and further, that he does not claim responsibility for the offer. This puts it directly on the shoulders of the Secretary of State.

The Senate watched with a good deal of interest to see if the President would send in Pindell's name to-day.
On Thursday last, Secretary Bryan sent Mr. Pindell's name to the President, and, at the same time, the President said he would send it to the Senate at the first opportunity. There was every reason to believe the name was on his desk at the time, and that it had not been called to his attention.
As the next session of the Senate was set for to-day, it was taken for granted the name would come in.

The fact that it did not appear, and the President indicated he intended to look into the peculiar offering attached to the offer made Pindell, is taken to indicate that he will not proceed further with the appointment until he has looked into it thoroughly. In all probability, he will send for Pindell and also listen to Senator Lewis' explanation. The Senator is expected in Washington to-night.

Approaching Marriage.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Fredericksburg, Va., November 10.— Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Wallace, of Stafford, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Ashby Wallace, and State Senator Richard Cassius Lee Monroe, of the same county. The ceremony will take place at the Church of the Holy Spirit, Stafford County, at 3:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, December 2.

Invitations to White House.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Fredericksburg, Va., November 10.— Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Woodbridge, of this city, have received an invitation to the White House marriage of Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson and Mr. Frank Bowers Sayre, which takes place tomorrow, November 25, Mr. Woodbridge is a relative of President Wilson.

Cards Are Out.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Fredericksburg, Va., November 10.— Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Smith, of Fredericksburg, and Miss Grace Stevens, of Stafford, who will be married at Goldsboro, N. C.
The marriage will take place at Goldsboro, November 19.

GOV. ROOPER APPOINTS DELEGATE.
Appointing Will Explain New Plan to Conserve Game.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Richmond, Va., November 10.—Gov.
L. B. Suggs, general manager of the Bristol and Electric Company, has been appointed delegate to the fifth annual National Game Warden Congress, to be held in Washington November 15 and 16. It is expected that Mr. Suggs will attend, and that as a result he will be given the privilege of explaining to the congress the Bureau plan of conserving and supplementing waterpower by the addition of an electric plant generated at the mouth of the Southwest Virginia main branch of the Roanoke river, which is unit for sale on any market.
It is calculated that this current can be produced so cheaply as to every part of the country over transmission lines that it will be an economic force in future development of the river and the factory of the generally. The plan contemplates shipping the power to the Roanoke river, and as to make their maximum capacity available at all times.

NEW CENTRAL BUILDING.
Rockefeller and Carnegie Subscribers Half the Money for Emory and Henry.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Bristol, Va., November 10.—The old central building at Emory and Henry College has been torn away and a new one is being prepared for the more pretentious new structure, for which the board of trustees will probably spend as much as $100,000.
The work is to go forward without delay.
The money to pay for it having been subscribed in a recent campaign, Rockefeller and Carnegie subscribed $50,000 of $100,000 raised.
The city fathers of Bristol have adopted the plan of Clarence B. Kerfoot, of Bristol, for a modern central high school building and this work is to be undertaken at once. It is said that the new building probably will cost upwards of $50,000.

Injured in Runaway.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Virginia, Va., November 10.—Frank Kenney killed last Friday evening when he left off the horse of N. R. Hall, of the same county, on East Seventh Street, causing it to run away.
Mr. Hall and John P. Hall, who were with him in the buggy jumped, with the result that Mr. Hall suffered a bad fracture of the leg, and also a slight concussion of the brain. Mrs. Puryear, who at first was thought to have escaped without injury, reaching his home became violent, so that it took several men to hold him in bed. The doctors now think that he also received injury to his brain. The doctors hold out some hope for the recovery of both men.

Killed by Heavy Truck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Virginia, Va., November 10.—Kempie Tuck of this place was almost instantly killed last Friday evening when he left off the wagon he was driving and the rear wheel passed over his body. The wagon was loaded with a heavy sackmill boiler, and while Mr. Tuck was trying to adjust it, it rolled over him, killing him. He was about thirty-five years old, unmarried, and is survived by his mother, Mrs.
J. L. Tuck, one brother, Luther Tuck, and several sisters, all of this place.

Blanket Department, Basement.

Blanket and Comfort Values You'll Not Duplicate Elsewhere

Large Double-Bed Size Wool-nap Blankets, very thick and warm, with pretty pink and blue border; specially priced for to-
day $1.00

11-4 White Woolnap Blankets, handsome pink and blue border, extra heavy and would be a good value for $3.00; specially priced at $1.98

Lamb's Wool Comforts, large double-bed size, with dainty seaco silk covering; special value, $6.00.
11-4 Woolnap Blankets, with pink and blue border, wide ribbon binding and will be sold to-day special $2.08

Another Good Woolnap Blanket for to-day's sale, 11-4 size, extra heavy and warm, and the price will be only $3.48

Wool-Filled Comforts, silklike covered, in floral or Persian designs; special $4.50

TITLE OF NOBILITY BESTOWED ON WOMAN

Emperor William Confers Dignity on Wife of Richard von Kuhlmann.

BY LA MARQUESE DE FONTENAY.
EMPEROR WILLIAM has for the first time since his accession to the throne, bestowed a nobility title upon a woman, in her own right.
By a patent just issued, he has conferred the dignity of a baroness upon the wife of Richard von Kuhlmann, counselor of the German embassy in London. From henceforth she will no longer be known as Frau (or Mrs.) von Kuhlmann, but as Baroness von Stumm-Kuhlmann, and will thus rank above her husband, who retains his name and status.

The reason for this unusual honor is that the new-begotten baroness is owner of the great Hamholz estate in the Province of Nassau, which she inherited from her father, the late Baron Hugo von Stumm, whose baronial title did not descend in the female line, but was to pass after his death, in the male line only, according to the laws of primogeniture. He was predeceased by his only son. The barony of the owner of the Hamholz estate will, according to the terms of the patent, descend at her death to her eldest son, but will not be shared by her other children.